In announcing a new Board of Teachers for the nest year, the Trustees are assured that nother ability on fidelity, on the part of the Instructors, will be wanting, to make the School of the very fore order. They would call particular attention to the fact, They would call particular attention to the fact, that Miss Merriam, in suddition to being in every respect a finished scholar and an experienced teacher, has for some time past been connected with an excellent French school, where, by the daily use of the purest French, she has become prepared to teach that language, in a manner that cannot be surpassed in this section of the country.

In facility of access, beauty of surrounding scenery, cheapness of living, and freedom from adverse influences, the location of the School is believed to offer superior inducements.

Lectures on subjusts of practical interest to the School will be given by the Principal and others, weekly during the Term.
